Operating Department Practitioner

Theatres - Jersey General Hospital, Health and Social Services
£36,557 - £40,400 (depending on experience)

You were born to care. It's ingrained in who you are and what you do. Jersey is a place built on care. It's why we look out for, and after one another so well, and why we give you the time and freedom you need to do your job properly. This is your chance to make a move and rediscover so much more than just a career. You'll be joining us as we're investing substantially in enhancing our facilities and management.

Our facilities include a suite of six fully refurbished state of the art theatres. The Theatres team sees between 450 and 500 patients each month, helping them to achieve the very best outcomes in life. Surgery includes, vascular, ophthalmic, oral and trauma, orthopaedics, gynaecology, urology and ENT. And we're growing. Our people are so important so with support from day one, you'll have everything you need to make the move and start changing the lives of others, and your own.

We'll provide you with a generous relocation package, continual training and development opportunities and the freedom to really rediscover why you love what you do, and who you are.

Make the move to Jersey today and see why this is care rediscovered.

Senior Nurses and Senior Operating Department Practitioners

Band 6 – £26,565 - £35,577 per annum pro rata

Full time 37.5 hours per week, part time considered | 24/7 service – days/nights/weekends/bank holidays

Variety of shifts including long days, some on-call requirement

Milton Keynes is a really great place for both families and singles to live, offering something for everyone. Our Trust is a medium sized level 2 trauma facility with around 500 inpatient beds rated good by the CQC.

We are looking to recruit motivated and enthusiastic Senior Theatre Practitioners to our team; our ideal candidate will have anaesthetic experience and orthopaedic scrub skills, such as joint, hand and spinal surgery, and trauma orthopaedic surgery. However, we welcome applicants with experience across the disciplines of surgical specialities.

The successful post holder will have excellent communication skills, and enjoy working in a fast paced and innovative facility. Good interpersonal and proven leadership skills will be required in order to provide specialised assistance in different clinical settings, and lead the theatre team. You will be expected to work independently and supportively to colleagues both in the department and other areas such as emergency and maternity departments.
